

John Estes

Photography

Movie Production stills ~ Portraits ~ Weddings ~ Fine art nature prints

251/422-7785

john@EstesArt.com

www.EstesArt.com

John has worked as the still photographer for:
The Discover Channel documentary entitled "Shipwreck," and with 12 full length feature films - most recently - "Tough Luck",
"The Novice", "Randy and the Mob", "Doubting Thomas",
"Fanboys", "The Year of Getting to Know Us",
"My Father's Five Wives" and "Everything Must Go."

John is a member of the International Cinematographers Guild Local 600, listed on the Industry Experience Roster and a member of The Professional Photographers of America. John shoots with professional Nikon equipment and uses a Jacobson Blimp.

An experienced underwater photographer, John is available to travel anywhere from his residence near the Gulf Coast of Alabama.
Besides numerous art / gallery exhibits and more than 100 weddings, his images have appeared in national magazines such as Southern Living, Rodale's Scuba Diving Magazine, International Dive Travel Magazine, The American Rose Annual,
Location Update - a Film and Video Magazine, Mobile Bay Monthly, Registered Rep Financial Magazine, TV Guide, The Sense of it All - magazine, and The Travel Guide for the Toronto Sun Newspaper.

